Watercolor exhibit showcases a panorama of San Diego landscapes at airport

San Diego Watercolor Society highlights the creative talents of local artists

What: Reception to celebrate the San Diego Watercolor Society's Plein Air (Outdoor) San Diego exhibit. More than 60 times each year, artists from the San Diego Watercolor Society assemble at various scenic locations throughout San Diego and record their visions in Plein Air watercolor paintings. This exhibition represents a small facet of the type of work created by these talented artists and highlights the beauty of San Diego's colorful landscapes.

When: Thursday, August 14, 2008, 4:00 – 6:00 p.m.

Where: San Diego International Airport
3707 North Harbor Drive, San Diego, CA 92101
Terminal 2 East, lower level, pre-security

Who:

- Constance White, Airport Authority Art Program Manager
- Carol Thompson, President, San Diego Watercolor Society
- Mike Shirk, Past President, San Diego Watercolor Society

Why: The Airport Art Program offers airport visitors a variety of stimulating exhibits that educate and enhance the airport experience. Exhibits embrace aspects of San Diego's cultural history and cultural diversity. The Plein Air San Diego exhibit is on display from mid-July 2008 until July 14, 2009.

The San Diego County Regional Airport Authority was established by state law in 2003 to operate San Diego International Airport and address the region's long-term air transportation needs. San Diego International Airport – funded through user fees and not local taxes – served some 18.3 million passengers in 2007.
