ACCESS INVESTIGATION FORM

Section I

In compliance with San Diego International Airport Rules and Regulations, an access investigation involving a criminal history records check and possible employment history verification, must be completed before an applicant is granted an airport identification badge (SAN ID Badge) allowing unescorted access to the airport's restricted Security Identification Display Area (SIDA).

In SECTION II, list your EMPLOYMENT/UNEMPLOYMENT/EDUCATION/MILITARY history in chronological order, beginning with the most recent period. Provide information to complete a FULL 10-YEAR history. Clearly PRINT all information. If additional space is needed, copy the SECTION II page as many times as necessary. Please use this form only. Be certain you verify and provide accurate phone numbers where references can be contacted. Advise references they may be contacted.

Provide a chronological history with no more than a six (6) month period of unaccountability. Indicate exact month and year of each period of EMPLOYMENT, UNEMPLOYMENT, EDUCATION, and/or MILITARY history. Provide explanations for any gaps of more than six (6) months.

EMPLOYMENT Provide the dates, names, current phone numbers and addresses of each previous employer. List an authorized company individual(s) who can provide a work-related reference.

UNEMPLOYMENT Provide the dates, names and phone numbers of business people and/or individuals (other than relatives) who can provide a reference for each period of unemployment. The reference should be able to confirm your identity and whereabouts for the period given.

EDUCATION Provide the institution name, attendance dates, addresses, and phone numbers for the records registrar.

MILITARY Provide branch of service and name and location of last command. Indicate type of discharge received.
