

CONTACT: Nicole Hall | O: 619.400.2859 | M: 858.531.2863 | E: nhall@san.org

San Diego International Airport Offers Record Nonstop Flights, Connecting Travelers Worldwide this Spring and Summer

Airlines boost service from SAN by more than 10 percent

SAN DIEGO, CA — April 28, 2026 – Travelers from San Diego International Airport (SAN) now have more options to fly nonstop to cities around the globe. Airlines operating at SAN will roll out new and resumed domestic routes and expanded international service during the spring and summer travel period (April through August). Eighty-seven nonstop destinations are now offered from SAN, which is the highest number in the airport’s history.

“Nonstop flights offered this spring and summer are up by more than 10 percent over last year,” said Atif Saeed, President and CEO, San Diego County Regional Airport Authority. “In total, the airlines at SAN are adding seven new routes, resuming nine domestic seasonal routes, and expanding or resuming seven international flights.”

New Nonstop Service Takes Off

Alaska Airlines and Southwest Airlines are launching new routes connecting San Diego to high-demand destinations:

- April 7 – Santa Rosa (Southwest Airlines)
- April 22 – Oakland, Dallas/Fort Worth, and Raleigh-Durham (Alaska Airlines)
- April 22 – Santa Barbara (Alaska Airlines) *
- June 4 – Boston (Southwest Airlines)
- August 4 – Santa Barbara (Southwest Airlines)

Domestic Seasonal Returning Routes

Three airlines are reinstating service to popular summer destinations through August:

- May 6 – Jacksonville and Norfolk (Breeze Airways)
- May 7 – Cincinnati and Raleigh-Durham (Breeze Airways)
- May 8 - Pittsburgh (Breeze Airways)
- May 16 – Anchorage (Alaska Airlines)
- June 4 – Pittsburgh (Southwest Airlines)
- June 11 – Kalispell/Glacier (Alaska Airlines)
- June 13 – Missoula (Alaska Airlines)

International Service

Global connectivity continues to grow, with major carriers increasing seasonal frequencies to key international cities:

- Feb 21 – Amsterdam, Netherlands (KLM Royal Dutch Airlines) – resuming three times per week
- April 25 – Munich, Germany (Lufthansa) – increasing to daily
- May 1 – London-Heathrow, England (British Airways) – increasing to twice daily
- May 1 – Calgary, Canada (WestJet) – daily, increasing to nine weekly flights in July
- May 2 – Montreal, Canada (Air Canada) - resuming daily
- May 2 – Vancouver, Canada (Air Canada) – increasing to three times daily

- July 1 – Panama City, Panama (Copa Airlines) – increasing to five times per week

Currently, 17 passenger airlines provide service from SAN. Whether traveling for business, leisure, or visiting with family and friends, passengers have more flexibility and convenience than ever before.

For a map of destinations available from SAN, please click here. For specific fares and flight schedules, travelers should contact their airline directly.

Alaska Airlines' flight to Santa Barbara resumes after an approximate three-year hiatus and is scheduled to continue year-round.*

ABOUT SAN DIEGO INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT (SAN)

Owned and operated by San Diego County Regional Airport Authority (Airport Authority), San Diego International Airport (SAN) is the third largest airport in California. SAN is a single-runway commercial service airport conveniently located minutes from Downtown San Diego. SAN serves 11 nonstop international and transborder routes to Europe, Canada, Mexico, Central America and Asia and it contributes nearly $12 billion in economic activity for the San Diego region. In September 2025, the Airport Authority opened the first phase of the new Terminal 1, a larger and more efficient facility that has greatly enhanced the customer experience at SAN. Once the new Terminal 1 project is complete in 2028, it will feature a total of 30 gates and will have generated more than $4.5 billion for San Diego's economy and created more than 25,000 jobs, paying a total of $2 billion in wages to local workers. For more information about SAN, please visit san.org.

###